

Application Architecture

Security Review - Findings (3/3)

- Secret management
 - the details regarding secret management are not available
 - ➡ provide information for secret management -> rotation, backup, access.
- Logging and monitoring
 - important to log and monitor all access and activity related to the web application and database to detect and respond to any security incidents
 - ➡ provide log format details and monitoring setup

Application Architecture

- Overview
- Security requirements
- Security review - findings
- Possible improvements