

Application Architecture

- Overview
- Security requirements
- Security review - findings
- Possible improvements

Application Architecture Overview

1. User, on Client PC via Browser, accesses Web-application
2. Web-application gets DB Client connection details and credentials from LDAP Directory
3. Web-application retrieves credit card data, customer details and transaction information from the central DB server