

Application Architecture

Possible Improvements (2/2)

- Containerisation
 - isolate the application from the underlying operating system
- Network segmentation
 - isolate the application and database components from other network segments
- Least privilege
 - restrict access to the resources and functions that are necessary for users to accomplish their tasks

