Application Architecture
Security Review - Findings (3/3)

- Secret management

  - the details regarding secret management are not available

  ➡️provide information for secret management -> rotation, backup, access.

- Logging and monitoring

  - important to log and monitor all access and activity related to the web application and database to detect and respond to any security incidents

  ➡️provide log format details and monitoring setup

Application Architecture

- Overview

- Security requirements

- Security review - findings

- Possible improvements